

Summary Notation: ArchiMate 3 Technology Essentials

Notation based on The Open Group ArchiMate 3.0 Specification

A node is an aggregate that contains devices.

A node is an aggregate that contains system software.

A device is assigned to run system software.

A node is linked by a path to another node.

A device has a communication network connection to another device.

A location aggregates a node to indicate its physical position.